

Robotics, Lasers, Drones

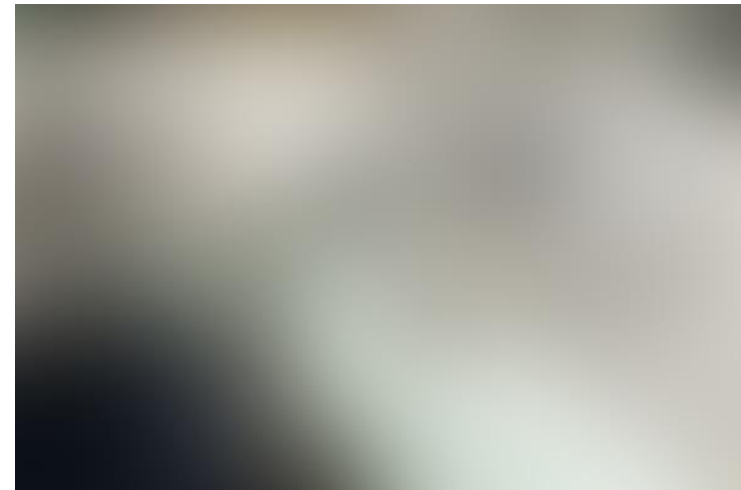

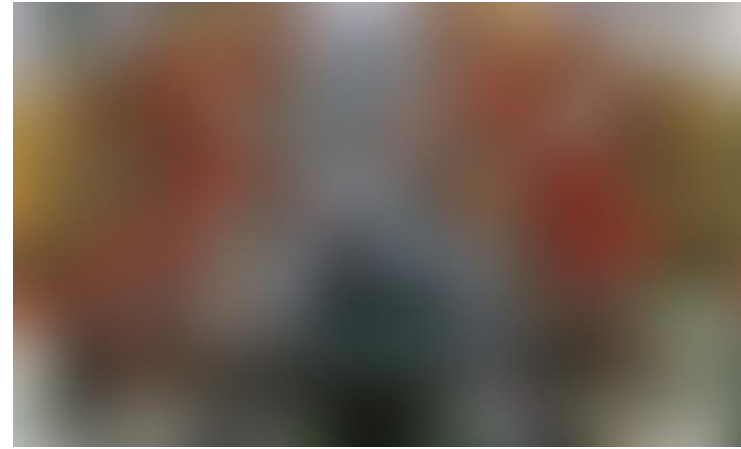

John PH Reade

Harper Adams University

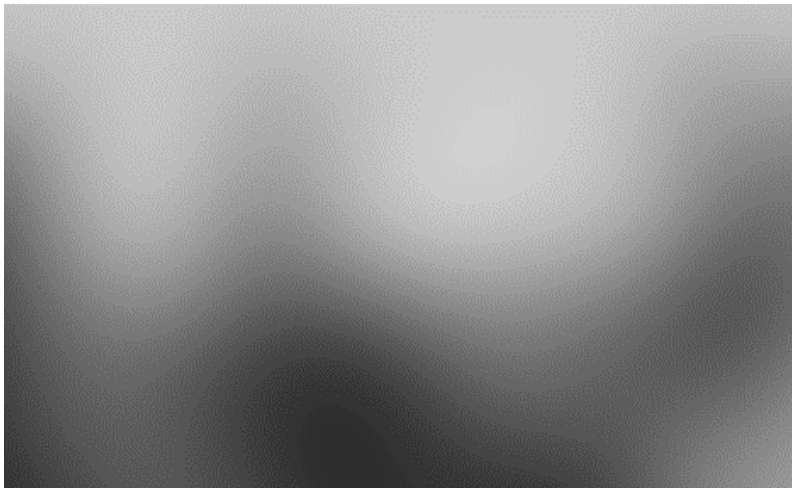

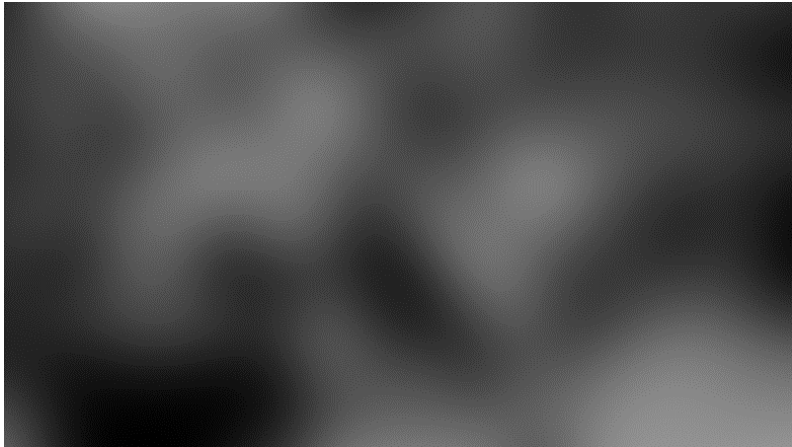

Toys or Tools?

Robotics and Autonomy

Robotics and Autonomy

Robotics and Autonomy

Lasers

Drones

Toys or Tools?

- Research and Development – often swords into ploughshares
- Effectiveness – must at least equal what we currently have or are left with
- Reliability – potential is to be more reliable than current options
- Affordability – prices of core technology are falling; will applied technology follow? This is vital for uptake in large scale agriculture
- Tools, not Toys! Fun tools, but still tools

Robotics, Lasers, Drones

John PH Reade

Harper Adams University