

Management of Vegetation

Edited by
J. M. WAY

BCPC Publications
144-150 London Road,
Croydon CR0 2TD.

Contents

	Page
Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	x
Programme Committee	xi
Chairmen and contributors	xii
List of delegates and addresses	xv
INTRODUCTION Part 1
The ecology of management of vegetation—F. T. Last	1
ESTATE MANAGEMENT AND ECONOMICS Part 2
General requirements for the management of vegetation—W. H. Clegg	27
The economics of vegetation management—R. O. Cobham	35
MANAGEMENT OF AQUATIC VEGETATION Part 3
Management of vegetation in or near water—T. G. Cave	67
GRASSLANDS AND HERBACEOUS Part 4
Management of herbaceous vegetation for amenity and recreation— W. N. G. Gilmour	85
Management of herbaceous vegetation on the sides of roads and motorways— A. P. Dunball	89
Management of herbaceous vegetation for wildlife conservation—B. H. Green	99
WOODLANDS AND FORESTRY Part 5
Management of woodland and woodland vegetation for amenity and recreation with particular reference to the New Forest—D. Small	117
Management of woodland and woodland vegetation for wildlife conservation— R. C. Steele	131
UPLANDS Part 6
The management of upland vegetation for amenity and recreation— I. D. Mercer	145
Integrated management of upland environment—The Earl Peel	155
SCRUB AND FARMLAND HABITATS Part 7
Management of natural vegetation on farms—P. A. Christensen	169
Management of hedgerows and scrub—E. S. Carter	177

Contents

RESEARCH	Part 8
Research on chemical methods of vegetation control—T. O. Robson		189
Research on ecological aspects of vegetation management—M. D. Hooper		203
CONCLUDING STATEMENT—M. W. Holdgate	Part 9	215