

SYMPOSIUM PROCEEDINGS NO. 77

The World's Worst Weeds

---

Chaired by C R Riches

---

Proceedings of an international Symposium,
held at The Hilton Brighton Metropole Hotel, UK

12 November 2001

BRITISH CROP PROTECTION COUNCIL

CONTENTS

Page

|                     |      |
|---------------------|------|
| Preface.....        | VI   |
| Abbreviations ..... | VIII |

|  |   |
|--|---|
| The Cyperaceae – still the world's worst weeds?P J Terry..... | 3 |
|--|---|

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Current status and future trends in grass weed occurrenceand control worldwideA M Mortimer..... | 21 |
|---|----|

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Are we on top of aquatic weeds? Weed problems,control options and challengesR Charudattan..... | 43 |
|--|----|

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Current status and future prospects for managementof parasitic weeds ( Striga and Orobancha )M C Press, J D Scholes and C R Riches ..... | 71 |
|--|----|

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Prediction and prevention of plant invasions – what is feasible?C Parker ..... | 91 |
|--|----|

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Weeds in a changing climateJ A Bunce ..... | 109 |
|--|-----|